

Annex 1: Interview topics on position of producer

- Information on production process: which crops the producer grows, what cultivation methods they use, what inputs they use, who is involved in the production process, how is the process financed, what is the role of the partner organization
- Information on chain activities of the producers: what kind of activities is the producer doing next to cultivation its crops
- Information on chain management: to whom do they sell (market relations), who manages the selling of produce, who sets the prices